

PRESS RELEASE – GILBERT WHITE’S HOUSE & GARDENS & THE OATES COLLECTION

CHILDREN FREE TO ‘HUNT EASTER BUNNIES’ AT GILBERT WHITE’S HOUSE

For the Easter Holidays from Fri 2nd until Sunday 18th April 2010 (also open Easter Monday) families with children are invited to the Easter Bunny Hunt event in Gilbert White’s world famous garden in Selborne. For this period only all children will be admitted free when accompanied by an adult, and they can hunt bunnies free of charge with a chocolate reward at the end of a good day’s hunting!

As well as this special event, there are entertaining activities that families can do in the museum at any time, including contributing to the Museum’s own ‘Young Person’s Natural History of Selborne’ and exploring nature in the grounds.

Carey Hides, Museum Manager at Gilbert White’s House, said: "We hope that these events will encourage families to come and enjoy fun and interesting activities together, and at the same time learn a little bit more about the fascinating collections in the museum and archives. There is no need to book but participants need to sharpen up their bunny hunting skills!"

OPEN DAILY (EXCEPT MONDAYS) FROM 10.30 am until 5.30pm INC EASTER MONDAY
